DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 10/21/08 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kori et al. (5,914,754) in view of Chen (7,133,053).

Regarding claim 1, Kori discloses an ascertaining step (9, lines 23-53), and a displaying step (video output at 27). Kori does not disclose the buffering step as claimed. In any event, teaches the use of an interpolating circuit (21,22). Chen, from the similar field of endeavor, discloses an interpolating circuit including a line buffer 32. Thus, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time that the invention was made to include the interpolating circuit of Chen into Kori to perform the well known functions as claimed. By including the interpolating circuit of Chen, the line buffer 32 stores only the selected region and unselected region is not stored.

Therefore, the line buffer 32 clearly meets the claimed buffer.

Regarding claim 2, see video ID decoder (4, or 19),

Regarding claim 3, see Figure 12a.

Regarding claim 4, see video ID encoder 7 or 26.

Regarding claim 5, see Figures 8-10.

Regarding claim 6, see col. 9, lines 46-51.

Regarding claim 7, see Figures 8-9.

Regarding claim 8, see memories 15 and 16.

Regarding claims 9-15, in addition of above, the adding step is met by the video disc 1 (note col. 3, lines 52-62).

Regarding claims 16-23, in addition of above, Kori further shows a means for storing (18).

Regarding claims 24-31, in addition of above, see microcomputer 5 and a program listing for carrying out the invention (Figure 2).

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-31 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
